

Phoenix Rising

Destroyer 66

[Warslut/Skullfucker]Oh to see our death as majesty
To look beyond our mortal tragedy
Set adrift on seas of infinity
Oh to see the terror of eternity... before our eyesOh to be reborn in fire
Oh to reap the reward of power
Oh to be a sacrifice, a sacrifice...
To a god who sees thru our eyes to a higher self"Let us chase the sky obscurers, world blackeners, cloud procurers,
Let us clear the realm of heaven,
Let us roar with free spirits, who are beast,
Roars my bliss, as if storm driven" (Nietzsche)Through the seas of bitter tears Unto our death without fear
Sink in to the glowing flames
Knowing I will live againI can feel the burning fire Burning all I have been
As the flames take me higher
Rising on the burning wings...RISING!
