

I Ain't in Checotah Anymore

Carrie Underwood

Where 69 meets 40
There's a single stoplight town
And back when I was really young
Part of that burned down On any given Friday night
We'd drive a hundred miles
Between the Sonic and the grocery store
Laughin' all the while With as many friends as I could pack
In my daddy's Ford
But I ain't in Checotah anymore My hotel in Manhattan
Holds more people than our town
And what I just paid for dinner
Would be a down payment on a house I'd rather be tipping cows in Tulsa
Than hailin' cabs here in New York
But I ain't in Checotah anymore I'm in a world so wide
It makes me feel small sometimes
I miss the big blue sky
The Oklahoma kind In a world of long red carpets
The bright lights of Hollywood
All the paparazzi flashing
Could make a girl feel pretty good You can get anything you want here
Except a Wal-Mart store
But I ain't in Checotah anymore I'm in a world so wide
It makes me feel small sometimes
I miss the big blue skies
The Oklahoma kind Where the Wildcats beat the Iron Heads
Old Settler's day and the Okra fest
After prom, down at the bowling lanes
Catching crappy fish in Eufaula lake
I ain't in Checotah anymore Oh yeah, I'm in a world so wide
It makes me feel small sometimes
I miss the big blue skies
The Oklahoma kind But I ain't in Checotah
No, I ain't in Checotah
Oh, there's nothing like Oklahoma Where 69 meets 40
There's a single stoplight town
