

It Is Finished

Daniel Glick & Emma Lynn Glick

It Is Finished

On that awesome day when the Earth grew dark
And the rocks of the fields split in two
When the Savior cried, "It is finished,"
Now I've done what I came here to do.

It is finished, it is finished
Every demon in hell understands.
It's in Jesus, It's in Jesus,
Everything for salvation for man.

On that day when the veil of the temple was ripped
Every man could now enter in,
While the heart-broken God had to turn away
As His Son took on Him our sins.

It is finished, it is finished
Every demon in hell understands.
It's in Jesus, It's in Jesus,
Everything for salvation for man.

Let the hills proclaim and the rocks cry out
The salvation of man has been won.
Everything I need to make and keep me clean,
I find in Jesus alone.

It is finished, it is finished
Every demon in hell understands
It's in Jesus, It's in Jesus,
Everything for salvation for man.

It is finished, it is finished
Every demon in hell understands.
It's in Jesus, It's in Jesus,
Everything for salvation for man.
Everything for salvation for man.
