

Roses And Thorns

Jeannie C. Riley

There are the roses and there are the thorns
There's a time for happiness and there's a time to mourn
There's a time to love then when love is faded and worn
Oh oh instead of the roses there are the thornsOnce there was spring and the flowers were gentle and sweet
I inhaled the goodness of love and my life was complete
I reached for a rose and its petals were crushed by my touch Oh oh I love too hard and the thorns are now hurtin' too muchWinter comes on with no mercy for those unprepared
Coldness creeps in on a heart that a dead love needs bared
Loving too much leaves a wreckage like that of a storm
Yes it does instead of the roses now I am holding the thornsRoses and thorns so close together they grow
Flatness and sadness emotions that everyone knows
When there is one the other can't be far behind oh no
I've held the rose and the stem with the thorns is now mine
