Rainbow Of Love

Bob Sinclar

your clear eye
is the most beautiful thing like sunrise
over the sea and when you smile with the day your eyes are the warmest thing you shed yesterdays skin
and a new day begins
CHORUS
so even when clear skies seem so far away
why go chasing rainbows rainbows from your door coz even all the clear skies won't bring back yesterday so why go chasing rainbows

thos who have seen
seen the phoenix rise say even from the pyre the dawn can still be beautiful the sound of your sunrise carries on the four winds
you shed yesterday's skin
TO CHORUS... sometimes we want to run away from a place long gone sometimes we want to throw away what we need for what we want when it's time to move on, move on...
