

In Memory

Wax Fang

Pretty girl all dressed in black
Body like an hourglass
Doesn't know just what she's in for, now
Doesn't know what to expect

People come and people pass
In memory they live again
Just be careful what you wish for, love
You might get it

All the voices in her head
Louder thoughts within I'd miss
Telling her what is what, oh no
Telling her which is which

People come and people pass
In memory they live again
Just don't bother trying to talk to them
'Cause they can't hear you

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh-oh-oh (repeat x8)

People come and people pass
In memory they live again
So watch your head and watch your six
Take every breath as if your last

Watch the angel of death comes to collect, oh-oh
You might be next
You might be next
