

San Francisco

Jesse Malin

Bye, baby, bye
I've been like this before
I've been destroyed
Another part of your collection
Bye, baby, bye
It's so sad in San Francisco
Need somebody tonight
Slowly we die talking 'bout my insurrections
Tell me a lie, all the things we never mention
Bye, baby, bye
All the way from Arizona
All the tears that I hide on the rock that rolled me over
I'm happy when you're gone
Baby, you can bring it on
And I won't be sad 'til I look out the window
Call your friends and lovers
If that's the way that you want it
That's the way that I want it too
I was outside, she was raining
I went downtown looking for lust
Bye, baby, bye
All the way from Colorado
Sitting by my side
we all know these hearts are hollow
Bye, baby, bye
No, I would not be a victim of somebody else's war
Would not be a victim anymore
Sad confusion as I walk out the door
Waiting on the nuclear war
