Too Damn Young

Luke Bryan

We met down at the floatin' dock
She snuck out, scared she might get caught
We were nervous
But it was worth it
There was no such thing as consequence
With her in my arms, it finally made sense
In that moonlight
I saw her tanlines
(Chorus)
Every time my feet are dangling in the water
I can't help but think about her lying there
With her wet hair
Didn't know what we were doing but we didn't care
That old wooden dock was warm on our backs
A t-shirt for a pillow and just like that
She kissed me like she meant forever
We were too damn young to know any better
The fog rolled in, she said I better go
She took my t-shirt and wore it home
A memory, a souvenir
She could keep
So I stayed and watched that sun rise
Like it was wakingup my life
To what live was
I can still see us
Every time my feet are dangling in the water
I can't help but think about her lying there
With her wet hair
Didn't know what we were doing but we didn' t care
That old wooden dock was warm on our backs
A t-shirt for a pillow and just like that
She kissed me like she meant forever
We were too damn young to know any better
Every time my feet are dangling in the water
I can't help but think about her lying there
With her wet hair
Didn't know what we were doing but we didn't care
That old wooden dock was warm on our backs
A t-shirt for a pillow and just like that

She kissed me like she meant forever
We were to damn young to know any better
