Midnight Caller (feat. Clare Maguire)

Chase & Status

I'm the midnight caller, waiting on the line
I need to be your lover, I need to get into your life
I'll be yours forevermore
Make me yours forevermoreWhen the feelings suffocate me and nobody's there
All alone I turn to you, to you, to youI'm the midnight caller, are you ready for me now?
You know there could be no other but your time's running out
I'll be yours forevermore
Make me yours forevermoreWhen the feelings suffocate me and nobody's there
All alone I turn to you, to you, to you, to youI'll be at the backdoor waiting for your love anticipating
Every step we make together, oh our love will be forever
I'll be at the backdoor waiting for your love anticipating
Every step we make together, oh our love will be foreverI'll be yours forevermore
Make me yours forevermore
