

I'm in Love (feat. Jacob Wright)

Scott Allan Mathews

I'm In Love
By Jacob Wright
From the original soundtrack to Home Run Movie
2012

I'm in need of another word
A longer noun a shorter verb
One that no one's ever heard
A word just for you.
Isn't love just a metaphor
A vain attempt and nothing more
To tell you how much I adore
All that you are.

Why, when I try
To describe you
My tongue gets tied?
You're much more than words
Can convey, what can I say?
I'm in love!
I'm in love!

Love, what is it anyway?
A clever term, an old cliché
Too familiar thing to say when I think of you.
And I have read the written page
Philosophers, the wisest sage.
When it comes to you
They are rather vague
What do they know?

Why, when I try
To describe you
My tongue gets tied?
You're much more than words
Can convey
What can I say?
