All I Need

Rob Rock

You come unraveled at the slightest glance
I'd like to go but I can't take the chance
Your crazy love's got a power trip on me
Tell me something, show me how you feel
Imagination gets the best of me
Every breath on the edge is so surrealAll I need is you to drive me insane because
All I want is you to love me again and againYour cold emotions got me wild and tense
I got my guard up but it's no defense
Just help me find the way to read your mind
It's never easy "cause you make it hard
Communication like a house of cards
Takes everything I've got to keep a hold on youAll I need is you, you drive me insane because
All I want is you, to love me again
All I need is you, don't lead me astray because
All I want is you, to hold me again
