

Ballin' (Feat. Lil Wayne)

Young Jeezy

Ballin', ballin', ballin', ballin'
Cut the music up
Ballin', ballin', ballin', ballin' You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes came to see me ball
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You know these hoes came to see me ball Hopped up out the bed, I think my roof gone
Think I forgot to put my roof on
Said "fuck it, buy another car"
Hopped out the Lamb'
Said "fuck it, bought another car"
I bought the Phantom just to say it's black
I bought the Phantom just to take a nap
I'm getting head in the backseat
I might stop and stand it tall like a athlete
I'm ballin' hard, I need a jersey on
So much bread on me, I can buy a Jersey home
I'm on them Diddy's, spendin' Dirty Money
I'm on that Jizzle, spendin' birdy money You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes came to see me ball
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You know these hoes came to see me ball Still ballin' like a muthafucker, tell 'em that
Three platinum chains to match my platinum plaques
Ain't got nuttin' gold but some gold chains
Say "Jizzle, what's the goal?"
Move the whole thang
My celly bumpin' like a chat line
He bought a five-hundred, need he, need a halftime
If yo job ain't ballin' hard, then you need to quit
You need a eighteen hard, then you need to split
Summer's mine, winter too
I'm poppin' bottles in the club, that's what winners do

They claiming bitches, them my old hoes
They claim they ballin' in my old flows
You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes came to see me ball
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You know these hoes came to see me ball
These hoes call me Tunechi baby
Niggas think they seeing me, they hallucinating
Bitch, I'm balling, ballin' like a motherfucker
Twelve gage, bitch, I got a dozen of them
Nigga broke, acting like they got it though
I'm with a Spanish bitch, if she ain't fucking, adios!
So many cars I'm like eenie meanie minie mo
So many colours in the diamonds, Kaleidoscope
Last year I made a hundred million dollars flat
Run in ya house, and get to poppin' at your shower cap
My homies got them firebirds like Pontiac
And if them bitches don't sell, we buy em back
You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes came to see me ball
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You know these hoes came to see me ball
You think you ballin' cause you got a block?
He think he ballin' cause he got a block?
You know these hoes love to see me ball
You know these hoes came to see me ball
