Heal

Ellie Goulding

When you appeared
I was just lonely
I was just in need of a friend
Spend your days
Thinking if only
Thinking if only we made sense
For any love quit the pain you feel
You won't let it go
You won't let it heal
Baby, it's clear
You don't know me
You don't know meAnd I don't have the heart that you think I do
And you give me so much, it's too much to lose
You know I'm not the one
Baby, I'm not the one
I can't show you my love that you showed to me
When it isn't enough, I won't make-believe
You know I'm not the one
Baby, leave love alone
Let it heal (heal)
Let it heal (heal)It's in your eyes
I can see that you're broken
I know you're lost because I am too
It's in your voice
I hear you choking
When did the illusion take the truth
I think you're in love
With the pain you feel
You won't let it go
You won't let it heal
Baby it's clear
You don't even know me
You don't even know meAnd I don't have the heart that you think I do
And you give me so much, it's too much to lose
You know I'm not the one
Baby, I'm not the one
I can't show you my love that you showed to me
When it isn't enough, I won't make-believe
You know I'm not the one

Baby, leave love alone
And let it heal (heal)
Let it heal (heal)You lit the fire and you held it in your hands until it flickered out
It wasn't innocent, you've measured every inch of love you've given now
You lit the fire and you held it in your hands until it flickered out
It wasn't innocent, you've measured every inch of love you've given nowAnd I don't have the heart that you think I do
And you give me so much, it's too much to lose
Baby, I'm not the one
I can't show you my love that you showed to me
You know I'm not the one
Baby, leave love alone
