

The Product Alive

Cattle Decapitation

Violently passive consumer vital statistic
A gear in a machine spinning out of control and ever ready to explode
The cemetery will carry on with carrion, turned to ashes
The species will die the harder they try to control the massesItemized flesh scanned inventory
A New Testament in greed
Taking count humanity is the product
Ever expanding the marketplace, dissolving the commonwealth
Pandemic the damnation, epicIf this is the answer, then count me out.
Humanity is the cancer, and I want out.Dead monolith towering cesspool of Babel
Dreams of tyrants the product aliveExcessive commodity dominant ideology
Self-destructive machine spinning out of control and ever ready to implode
The cemetery will carry on with carrion, turned to ashes
The species will die the harder they try to control the massesI walked inside the monolith
In plastic I was rebornIf this is the answer, then count me out.
Humanity is the cancer, and I want out.Dead monolith towering cesspool of babel!
Dreams of tyrants the product alive
