

Comin' Undone

Sarah Jarosz

[VERSE 1]

Some days feel so heavy
They come when I'm not quite ready
I get to feelin' useless
But I can see right through this
I'm gonna let the song in my head ring[VERSE 2]

It feels like the world is collapsing
But I already know it's gonna happen
I'm gonna hold on tighter
Yes, I'm a lover, but I'm also a fighter
The song in my head keeps me clappin'[CHORUS]
'Cause I've got a song, and it must be sung
Every day's a war, and it must be won
Whenever I feel like I'm comin' undone
The song in my head keeps me marching on[VERSE 3]

The world's full of bad news bearers
Talkin' heads talkin' 'bout terror
Sometimes I feel so useless
Like nothing I could do would ever improve it
But I could make the worlds little better[BRIDGE]

You tell me that you're worried 'bout tomorrow
You talk like all the time you've got is borrowed
Like you're livin' on credit
But you keep singin'. Honey, you can bet it's Gonna sing it through tomorrow[CHORUS] x2
With a song, and it must be sung
Every day's a war, and it must be won
Whenever I feel like I'm comin' undone
The song in my head keeps me marching
With a song, and it must be sung
Every day's a war, and it must be won
Whenever I feel like I'm comin' undone
The song in my head keeps me marching on[OUTRO]
(Hmm)...(Ooh)...(Hmm)
