

Man Without Faith or Trust

Akercocke

Walking on water
Water into wine Fear is the opiate [Incomprehensible] Clotted screams [Incomprehensible]
Never ceasing repeating Silence, words of righteousness
Fill the angel's mouth
The angel's mouth
Fuck the mouth Immerse the soul in oblivion
An abyss of hallucinations
With time standing still
Standing still Waiting patiently
Waiting patiently
Under a Judas goatskin
Waiting patiently To catch the life you throw away
With time standing still
Observing chaos in action
Confront the real and ideal
