LUSTRA

Ananke

Lustra, there's something hiding
Behind your immaculate smile
You have always known, so let it outLustra, I fell your anger
Swell the radical in your style, girl
Take the cross you bear and throw it outShe's coming up, coming up
Breathe it in and let it out
Let it go, be yourself, take a shot
It's what you've always known now
You've always known now what you waiting forLustra, it's gonna take as long
As long as it will take
To strike a match to your silence
Take the pain you bear and burn it outShe's coming up, coming up
Breathe it in and let it out
Let it go, be yourself
Take a shot and give it outComing up, coming up
Breathe it in and let it out
Let it go, be yourself, take a shot
It's what you've always known now
You've always known now what you waiting forLustra, don't you know where's no tomorrow
In a sense, there's no way out
Innocence is all you're born with
Inner sense dictates the way you wheel
The way you deal with knowing who you areLustra, you know where hell is when you
Fight the maze of denial, do it
You've gotta take a shot
Give all you've got for your dreams girlShe's coming up, coming up
Breathe it in and let it out
Let it go, be yourself
Take a shot and give it outComing up, coming up
Breathe it in and let it out
Let it go, be yourself, take a shot
It's what you've always known now
You've always known now
