Syndication (remix)

Everlast

Dope new styles & rhymes breaking science down with the Rhyme syndicate alliance you wanna tip it in the crack of the whip you know the saying about ships & slips with a lip you'll be sunk while i'll be gettin drunk with the bottle of rose-a I keep the mike drunk punk dont try to get none know where im comin from I dont care if you do got a gun you better step off before I go off & dont dare buck with a showoff cause then ill break hard you'll think im a fanatic speak my rhymes in English not breaking no magnatics cause thats for other people who ain't got em but if almost every other rhyme I can spot em get off it get off the band wagon runnin the same old style that keeps dragging Everlast is all with rhymes ready to drop here yo here I go again Im the foreman of this rap this rhyme style distruction your on the eve of distruction (wait a minute)
keep on singing, keep on singing, keep on singing, keep on singing keep on singing, keep on singing, keep on singing, keep on singing Step forward baser meet the grim reaper your aiming for the top as the ladder gets steeper to my man Divine I send this dedication to let him know that with his help I got a syndication with the dope rhymes I write the styles of the sight dont follow this leader im not your god light to the groove im smooth like a hit from a hooter I might smoke the herb but I wont sniff a shooter not hanging with gangs or messin with thugs not taking no cane nore deal in no drugs cause im straight like an arrow the panther bottle was narrow on the rhymes everlast is sore like a sparrow through the sky so dont ask me why if your dazed and confused you must be high so before you try and break make sure that your sober cause i'll snatch a crown boy then i'll just roll yer

(wait a minute)
keep on singing, keep on singing, keep on singing, keep on singing
keep on singing, keep on singing, keep on singing, keep on singing here yo come here lend me a ear Everlast is the name for me and my gear so get up get with it come on admit it the rhyme I just spoke, you wish you did it like I do and you try to, but I will quit while im ahead if I were you but im not I give it all I got get the girls on the floor make em hot to drop, its a caucassion sensation theres no hesitation Everlast reigns supreme an im a syndication keep on keep on keep on singin
keep on keep on keep on singin
keep on keep on keep on singin keep on singin keep on singin
