

Good Times (Jus Bus Remix)

Marcy Playground

When life has got you down
And everything about it makes you blue
Pick up, keep moving on
'Cause that's the very best thing you can do
Say hey Woz, whatever this is it's alright
Hey John, this too shall pass
It's a season in your life, yeah, yeah
Well, I'm kicking down the back streets
And people wanna break my stride
Everyone has a time
When they lose their pride
But when I'm old and in my chair
Thinking back, looking back
What will I remember
All the good times, they were alright
When every morning brings
A struggle just to get up from the bed
Say hey man, whatever this is it's alright
Hey man, this too shall pass
It's a lesson in your life, yeah, yeah
Well, I'm kicking down the back streets
And people wanna break my stride
Everyone has a time
When they lose their pride
But when I'm old and in my chair
Thinking back, looking back
What will I remember
All the good times, they were alright
