This European air It always warms my face I wish I could buy some I will bring you stories And bleary eyed photos Like a regular tourist We don't go breaking down I feel like nothing ever will We don't go breaking down I feel like nothing Suitcases down our street Are rolling once again I roll away with them Five days inside Zoo York To lose myself with friends I'm nowhere without you We don't go breaking down I feel like nothing ever will We don't go breaking down (I don't believe) I feel like nothing ever will (We will) We will never go breaking down (I don't believe) I feel like nothing Just wanna be with you, my baby I'm counting up the cost of time And will embrace our time away We cannot save ourselves alone Or rely on a mobile phone Just wanna be with you, my baby (I'm counting up the cost of time) Just wanna be with you, my baby (And will embrace our time away) Just wanna be with you, my baby

(We cannot save ourselves alone)

Just wanna be with you, my baby
(Or rely on a mobile phone)
Just wanna be with you, my baby
Just wanna be with you, my baby
Just wanna be with you
