Day One

John Newman

Day one I felt so high,
You were selfishh from the start,
You couldnt open up your heart,
You were ripping love apart,
Day two I felt the pain,
Couldnt play your foolish game,
Every scent was dead wrong,Still I stand by what I say,
Wont take this anymore,
Wont take your lies,
Wont take your hand,
I'm breaking out the door,I've been broken since day one,
You, you're viscious like them all,
In what you say in what you do,
No more will I take this shit from you,
I've been broken since day oneDay three you took me cold,
Left me waiting on my own,
You got such a selfish soul,
You don't deserve all I've shown,
You aint never gonna change,
You'll always be so dame,
And everything is just wrongStill I stand by what I say,
Wont take this anymore,
Wont take your lies,
Wont take your hand,
I'm breaking out the door,I've been broken since day one,
You, you're viscious like them all,
In what you say in what you do,
No more will I take this shit from you,
I've been broken since day oneI'm never gonna change and that's what's gonna be that,
(You aint shit, just a nobody)
I'm never gonna change and that's what's gonna be that,
(No, no, no, no, no now baby)
I'm never gonna change and that's what's gonna be that,
(I aint changing for nobody no, no, no)
I'm never gonna change and that's what's gonna be thatI've been broken since day one,
You your viscious like them all,
In what you say in what you do,
No more will I take this shit from you,
I've been broken since day oneI've been broken since day one,

You, you're viscious like them all,
In what you say in what you do,
No more will I take this shit from you,
I've been broken since day one
