Champagne

Shag Rock

we see a child breathing up so so so asking himself if he'll ever be the same one no no no
we are the wild ones running lonenly through the sun far beyond the village are secrets far beyond the rains no no no and then one day your bubble bursts and all the well comes in and the mist comes down and you scream out loud for champagne

no no no

if staying still was a haters crime then you'd be the worst to love I build you up if you step outside a million dollars wouldnt change your .... your .... wouldnt change your.... wouldnt change your mind.

and you saw lovers fading out of love watching the sea birds dive watching them come up and you are the quiet one who sewed up all the seams far above the fury that seaks us far beyond our small town dreams and one day your bubble bursts

and all the well comes in
and the mist comes down
and you scream out loud for champagne
no no no

-if staying still was a haters crime
then you'd be the worst to love I'll build you up if you step outside a million dollars wouldnt change your... your... wouldnt change your...wouldnt change your mind. -(2x)

Lyrics Submitted by jo

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/