The Letterbomb

Milagres

I saw you glisten on a glowing sealing scream
And ask the nice man that take good care of me
To, please, crack you this letter bomb...
I heard you whisper through the windy cracks
I watched you blunder across the flows and lakes
I had to send you the vibes to win for meLiving in a crucial pace
Try to fill the empty space
Waiting for the wind to blow
Listen to the glass coal...I've dreamt of scientific miracles
Fresh bodies built for men born with only heads...
I can't imagine what you had to feel
Since I am turning on you, safe stuck in hereLiving in a crucial pace
Try to fill the empty space
Floating in a black balloon
Into the aurora...Don't wait for me
It turns out I'm a fake
Just a projection of yourself
A faceless name...Singing with a twisted tongue
Dancing in an iron lung
Floating in a black balloon
Into the aurora...Singing with a twisted tongue
Dancing in the iron room
Watching on the screen above
For green is in the shadows...

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/