

Lands

Gem Club

where is the chorus in the airwaves i sit with crystals at my side no one can offer up an answer and years are passing by i saw the look of lands changing and i feel you are the one who's moving beneath are there riders coming through the dark there is no more communication i'm building lovers in our bed i feel no real danger i'm filled with desire the back of my head split wide open
