Glass Houses

Bad Omens

[Intro]
I see through you,
I know what you are.
I've seen the devil,
More than I've seen god.
I see through you,
I know what you are.
I've seen the devil,
More than I've seen god.
Go![Verse 1]
Cover your ears,
And shut your eyes,
'Cause whatever I'm bout to say is gonna ruin your night!
This is a call out,
And I'm not scared to drop some names.
You've dug your grave and you have no one but yourself to blame!
I see the world,
In black and white,
Because true color always fades under the bright lights![Chorus]
I see through you,
I know what you are.
I've seen the devil,
More than I've seen god.
And when he has you by your neck,
I hope you choke on every fucking word you say.[Verse 2]
You've run out of luck and I'm calling your bluff,
You stab me in the back,
But not deep enough!
But not deep enough!
I see through you.[Chorus]
I see through you,
I know what you are.
I've seen the devil,
More than I've seen god.
And when he has you by your neck,
I hope you choke on every fucking word you say.
I see through you,
I know what you are.
I've seen the devil,

More than I've seen god.

And when he has you by your neck,

I hope you choke on every fucking word you say.

(Say!)[Hook]

You said I'd never make it,

You said I'd fall on my face,

But now I'm right where I belong and I put you in your place.

You said I'd never make it,

You said I'd make a mistake,

But now I'm right where I belong and you've got nothing to say![Bridge]

I see through you,

I know what you are.

I've seen the devil,

More than I've seen god.

And when he has you by your neck,

I hope you choke on every fucking word you say.[Chorus]

I see through you,

I know what you are.

I've seen the devil,

More than I've seen god.

And when he has you by your neck,

I hope you choke on every fucking word you say.[Outro]

You stab me in the back,

But not deep enough!
