

Judy

Tony Bennett

If her voice can bring
Every hope of the spring
That's Judy, my Judy If her eyes say yes
But you're wrong in your guess
That's Judy, my Judy If you hear her call
In a soft, southern drawl
"Hi, stranger", that's danger If you're smart
Watch your heart
She'll upset 'most
Any fellows apple cart In a hundred ways
You'll be shouting her praise
She'll let ya, I mean she'll get ya When she sees you fall
She will tell you, "That's all
You wretch ya, you bet ya" Then you'll know
All the heartaches
Of a fool just like me If she seem a saint
And you'll find that she ain't
That's Judy, sure as you're born
