

Song of Faith

Haste the Day

Letting go off your hand, I walk alone again
On this path, in this pain
My flesh burned away, my body broken
Thought I was strong I see the perfect day
I won't walk away
I see the perfect day
I won't walk away I gave my faith to the wind today
And I won't let you make the same mistake
It seems so easy to walk away
Remember how it used to be I'll never, I'll never I'll never, come never
Make the same mistake And I'll never I will never make the same mistake
Of letting go, letting go
I will never make the same mistake
Of letting go, letting go
