Cursed We Are

I

Emerged from the shadows
Reincarnated by the walls
Into the blackened meadows
Straight into the darkside falls

All souls on fire
Colored by a bloodred sky
The flames reaching higher
Feel the glimpse of red tonight

The curse of men has become our fate
It brought us here to end our days
Countdown for the walls of time
The age of light will pass away

The storm race against us
A thousands days of misery
All fall in twilight
Burning for eternity

Oh, what an age to reign
Blasting flames in the sky
Waiting for that moment
Journey to the other side

The curse of men has become our fate
It brought us here to end our days
Countdown for the walls of time
The age of light will pass away

There's no essence, no future
You wouldn't know what I have seen
There's no essence, no future
Cursed we are eternally

Fly souls of hatred
Spread your wings across the sky
To the end of the earth
Riding at the speed of light

All end in damage
Mindless voices call your name
Devoted to the darkness
Driven by the force that reigns

Cursed we are to die as men
Beneath the gods of ice and sand
Cursed we are all
The earth man and sky shall fall

There's no essence, no future
You wouldn't know what I have seen
There's no essence, no future
Cursed we are eternally
