Guardian Angel

Lovex

Through the darkness and broken glass
I'll come for you, if you only ask
And there i'll stand
Just for youA million miles between our lives
Can't keep us apart from our grieving hearts
Sealed with love
God speed my darlingFor your name
I'm calling
For our love
I'm falling... on my kneesAnd if you cry, i'll hold your head up high
I'll be there by your side
I will be your guardian angel
And if you cry, i'll hold your head up high
I'll be there by your side
I will be your guardian angelIn the garden of lonely love
I'll wait for you, 'till the time will come
When i see you smile
Just for meLove and loss embrace the pain
You can't hide your tears in the rain
I'll be there
Just wait my darlingAnd for your name
I'm calling
For our love
I'm falling on my kneesAnd if you cry, i'll hold your head up high
I'll be there by your side
I will be your guardian angel
And if you cry, i'll hold your head up high
I'll be there by your side
I will be your guardian angelI will do the things that I can to light your life and see you smile
And it brakes my heart in twoUntil I see you smile just for me
Until I hear you breath calm and free
and until you sleep
I won't let you grieveAnd if you cry, i'll hold your head up high
I'll be there by your side
I will be your guardian angel
And if you cry, i'll hold your head up high
I'll be there by your side

I will be your guardian angelI will do the things that I can to light your life and see you smile
It brakes my heart in two
