

Lost Not Forgotten

Dream Theater

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I am not immortal
I am just a man
A power-craving tyrant
Beyond the shadows in the sandMen have come to fear me
Many bow and cry
Known across the desert
I am the one who will not dieI have faced the demons of most desperate moments
I have been the one to defend our pride
I have worn the banner of my abandoned brothers
I will be the first one to give my lifeLost not forgotten
Reigning against the odds
Feared and respected living among the gods
Leading the empire
Spirit as black as coal
Lost not forgotten
King of the deathless soulAn epic novel no one's read
Pages torn and faded
The greatest story never toldBehold the kingdom I posses
Land of wealth and beauty
Where the streets are paved with goldOnce fearless and brave
A realm passed away
The ghosts of yesterdayLost not forgotten
Reigning against the odds
Feared and respected living among the gods
Leading the empire
Spirit as black as coal
Lost not forgotten
King of the deathless soulLost not forgotten
Reigning against the odds
Feared and respected living among the gods
Leading the empire
Brutal and heartless

Vanishing further
Into the darkness
Lost not forgotten
King of the deathless soul
