

In Control

Crosscut

Fearless rejection

Breathing with imperfection

Living with imperfection

Listen to me when I say

That I will never get back to you

You bite the hand that was feeding youDark thoughts nailed into your fate now

Dark thoughts awaiting to shine nowI choose a way with no surrender

I choose a way with no surrenderWon't you stay away, away

I guess it's not the last time

Won't you stay away, away

I just hope it's the last timeLooking after me

I need you and you need me

But it seems you didn't read the informationDark thoughts nailed into my fate now

Dark thoughts awaiting to shine nowKeeping me calm before I explode

Keeping me calm you're keeping me closeYou don't know my determination

I'll make you feel a new sensationWon't you stay away, away

I guess it's not the last time

Won't you stay away, away

I just hope it's the last timeI need to be in control

In control of myself

In control of myself

Fearless rejection

ImperfectionWon't you stay away, away

I guess it's not the last time

Won't you stay away, away

I just hope it's the last timeI need to be in control

In control of myselfI choose a way with no surrender

I choose a way with no surrender
