One Woman One Man

Magic!

I am a sinner, as cold as the winter
She is the sun, she is the queen of love
I am a burden, always uncertain
She is a raft, only believes in usAnd I know that she cries by the red in her eyes
She's been waiting for signs that never call
All she ever really wanted wasOne woman, one man
That's all that she asks
No other demands
One woman, one manI am a loser, I only confuse her
She is the sail, no matter where we go
Tradition in evades pass down
The way I live is far too gone
Oh I wish it wasn't so (Lord I wish it wasn't so)And I know that she cries by the red in her eyes
She's been waiting for signs that never call
All she ever really wanted wasOne woman, one man
That's all that she asks
No other demands
One woman, one man, yeahOne woman, one man
That's all that she asksOne woman, one man (One woman, one man)
One woman, one man
? That's all that she asks
One woman, one man (One woman, one man)
One woman, one man
? (One woman, one man)
Woah (One woman, one man)
Eh eh (One woman, one man)
One woman, one man
One woman, one man
One woman, one man
One woman, one man
One woman, one man
