The Lonely One

Siouxsie and the Banshees

Happy in solitude
Secure there's no-one to depend on
Scorning alms & good luck charms
Staring down to the rocks belowI was the lonely one
I didn't want no-oneAn odyssey so solitary
Carries you forth to collide with me
Recognized familiar signs
We're hypnotized on the turning tideYou were the lonely one
Who didn't want no-one
I was the lonely one
I didn't want no-oneHere I stand on the shifting sand
Waves of lassitude wash inland
The lonely cry of a seagull flies
Into my mind and recalls a timeWhen I was the lonely one
Who didn't want no-one
You were the lonely one
No we didn't want no-oneHear my hymn calling the lonely one
Hear my hymn for the lonely one
