Initiation

Crown the Empire

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Welcome new recruits to your evaluation and initiation course.
This system designed to test your survival and critical thinking skills in Aeon City.
Please adjust your volume and do not moveWelcome to the resistance.I've been a victim.
I've been a coward hiding underneath my pain.
I've been immobilized and watch the system destroyed everything I've loved.
We cannot take this.
We must resist this.Who will you follow when the world fades to the grey?
Where can I turn when the world gives up on me!I keep waiting in the dark for someone to come and save me.
And I've been holding onto something I could never change.We all search for higher grounds.
When the world comes crashing down.
But I know nobody will come into the dark and save me.With fired claws and casted hearts.
I feel my fear just fall apart.
I melted down to clear my past.
Then forged from fire so that I may ask.Who will you follow when the world fades to the grey?
Where can I turn when the world gives up on me!I keep waiting in the dark for someone to come and save me.
And I've been holding onto something I could never change.We all search for higher grounds.
When the world comes crashing down.
But I know nobody will come into the dark and save me...All new recruits we have been surrounded by scarecrows.
This is not a drill.
I repeat, this is not a drill.
Runaway status is active for all new recruits.
Effective immediately.
System Failure.Look what they've done to us.
Look what they've done to us.
Look what they've done to us.I've grown so sick of hiding,
It's time we reclaim what's ours.
They try to say what we'll become & rearrange the stars.
I know I'm sick and fucking tired of this mess they've made.
So let their arrows block the sun.
We'll fight under the shade!Welcome to the resistance.I keep waiting in the dark for someone to come and save me.

And I've been holding onto something I could never change.We all search for higher grounds.
When the world comes crashing down.
But I know nobody will come into the dark and save me.I keep waiting in the dark for someone to come and save me.
And I've been holding onto something I could never change.We all search for higher grounds.
When the world comes crashing down.
But I know nobody will come into the dark and save me.Who will you follow when the world fades to the grey?
Where can I turn when the world gives up on me!
