

Day After Forever

George Jones

If you think, you can depend on me
You're right, you can
If you think, that I'm in love with you
You're right, I am
But nothing lasts forever
All good things must end
And it's only, a matter, of timeDay after forever
I'm out that door
One way or the other
To return never more
Don't count on me baby
For I will be gone
Day after forever
Honey, you're on your ownIf you think, I love you more than life
You're right, I do
If you think, you're in my heart and soul
You're right, it's true
But I must leave you someday
Although I worship you
And it's only, a matter, of timeDay after forever
I'm out that door
One way or the other
To return never more
Don't count on me baby
For I will be gone
Day after forever
Honey, you're on your own
