

Lions

Coasts

[Solo 1]

She stands at six feet tall, with her back to the wall.

Her voice is soft as Sahara's sand on the dryest land.

Put my faith in the swan on the water, there is more to her than you could know when the jewels are raining down, to sit on broken ground[Pre-Chorus]

She'll be there,
when the wall falls down.

Don't be scared,
if it all comes down.[Chorus]

Love me to pieces,
hold my hands high,
lift my head up towards blinding light. (2x)[Solo 2]

We're dancing like we're dumb under summer stars,
but the light was playing tricks almost taken too far.

When we're falling all over the place and her lust is enough to take,
those lips are burning red,
still like a day when we met.[Pre-Chorus]

She'll be there,
when the wall falls down.

Don't be scared,
if it all comes down.[Chorus]

Love me to pieces,
hold my hands high,
lift my head up towards blinding light. (2x)[Outro]

And I'm begging mercy;
just hold my heart,
from the depths of my chest. (2x)

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>