

Hang 'em High

Black Peaks

To love, is not enough
To break, beyond the chains
To hate, is more enough
To break beyond, the walls High above these foothills
Stand the laughing men
Go
Now
In their glass built castles
We will tear them down
Go
Now To love, is not enough
To break, beyond the chains
To hate, is more enough
To break beyond, the chains
As I scale this fortress
They will cower in fear
Go Now, Go Now
I will watch you crumble
As you hang from high
Go Now, Go Now To love, is not enough
To break
Break, Break, Break To hate, is more enough
To break,
Break, break, break, break,
break To love, is not enough
To break, beyond the chains
To hate, is more enough
To break beyond, the walls
To love, is not enough
To break, beyond the chains Hang them high Love, Love, Love Love, Love, Love
Hang them, high x8
