Fantasia

Gasman

Welcome to my world, close the gates
You've come from far away, I've been expecting you
You are the holders of the key to the story that never endsFantasia, resides deep in your heart
Leave your worries far behind
Fantasia, let the freedom ring the bell
Let us all unite, borders made of hate are gone
Nations singing the song of peace in FantasiaHow would it be? A world without hate
Without heaven, without hell
No wars, no arms, no religion, no God
Just your own truthFantasia can arise in youFear and darkness prevail
But finally they will failFantasia, resides deep in your heart
Leave your worries far behind
Fantasia, let the freedom ring the bell
Let us all unite, borders made of hate are gone
Nations singing the song of peace, FantasiaFantasia, one day when love conquers all
Mankind will prevail, no more jealousy
Fantasia, no more envy no deceit
The nothing is gone, future's bright and glorious
We are all victorious, we are kings in Fantasia
