

Degeneration

When Saints Go Machine

Heard you've got sunshine under your skin
Let trash take out what beauty sees blend
Heard water running into pool or sea
Everyone's got stories but she reminds me I'm waving
Not to see you again
We cry and we cry
Don't you realize
I'm trying to keep you alive Veins paint a picture under your skin
Outrun you brother of mine the shape I'm in Never glanced at stars before safe I've been
Never really bothered took kindly to sin I'm waving
Not to see you again
We cry and we cry
Don't you realize
I'm trying to keep you alive Heard you got sunshine bottled up tan
Pull out one plug to plug one in
Not enough power to give Veins paint a picture under your skin I'm a couple of stones off
A couple of souls in
Impossible not wronging anyone
Impossible to stay fit
I'm a couple of stones off
A couple of souls in
Impossible not wronging anyone
Impossible to stay fit
