

Imagination

Erasure

What do you do with yourself
When you see the storm clouds rising?
Feeling alone with yourself
As the sun fades awayThe memories come to and fro
The trouble is they never want to go
They come, never goIt's just your imagination rolling over the past
It can change your mind completely
It's just my imagination running wild and too fast
But I know it won't defeat meLook into the eyes of Medusa
And she'll turn your world to stone
She'll tear at your eyes and seduce you
And your soul will be goneThe messages and hidden dreams
Of former lives and lovers never seen
A love never seenIt's just your imagination rolling over the past
It can change your mind completely
It's just my imagination running wild and too fast
But I know it won't defeat meWhat do you do with yourself
When you're lost on some horizon?
Taking a hold of yourself
When you know the timing's wrongThe memories come to and fro
The trouble is they never want to goIt's just your imagination rolling over the past
It can change your mind completely
It's just my imagination running wild and too fast
But I know it won't defeat meIt's just your imagination rolling over the past
It can change your mind completely
It's just my imagination running wild and too fast
But I know it won't defeat me and I know it won't defeat me, yeah
