

Nobody's Laughing

Freak Kitchen

Nobody's laughing here
Nobody's laughing Your mouth is open wide
Words spin a cynical swing It's getting cold in inside
While I hear you joking...Sarcasm Boy
You know, some of us are not amused Nobody's laughing here
Nobody's laughing
Nobody's laughing here
Nobody's laughing The superficiality
And verbal diarrhea's OK What scares the pants off me
Is what you really say Sarcasm Boy
You know, some of us are not amused Nobody's laughing here
Nobody's laughing
Nobody's laughing here
Nobody's laughing Tell me, do I have a hunch?
Should I take you seriously? We're such a clever bunch
Generation Irony But nobody's laughing here
Nobody's laughing Nobody's laughing here
Nobody's laughing
Nobody's laughing here
Nobody's laughing You have a ball your way
And I am entitled to mine Still, I think my hair will turn gray
Waiting for the punch line
