

Overjoyed

Jars of Clay

You name me, who am I?
That I should company with something so divine?
Mercy waits, overjoyed prospect of finding, freeing
Freeing me Love is the thing this time I'm sure
And I couldn't need you more now
The way that you saw things were so pure
Overjoyed You name me, entertain
Thoughts of peace can overcome anything
Mirror spins, wicked tales, here lies reflections of Deceptions of Love is the thing this time I'm sure
And I couldn't need you more now
The way that you saw things were so pure
Overjoyed Missing the me from you, you gave to me
I don't like the one I have created today
Crossing nameless from the one I've earned
To be the one, the one you gave to me You name me, name me
Finding, freeing me Love is the thing this time I'm sure
And I couldn't need you more now
The way that you saw things were so pure
Overjoyed Love is the thing this time I'm sure
And I couldn't need you more now
The way that you saw things were so pure
Overjoyed Overjoyed, overjoyed
