Hold My Hand

Brandy Clark

Raven is the color of her long curly hair.
Red is the dress that she knows how to wear.
Bluest eyes I've ever seen, maybe just a touch of green.
Oh, she could steal most any woman's man.
This would be a real good time, to hold my hand.She walked up and said: "Hello, it's been a while".
Don't think I didn't notice the nervous in your smile.
Wasn't that long ago, you were a whole lot more than friends.
So this would be a real good time, to hold my hand.Don't let this moment linger,
Now would the time,
To reach with out your fingers,
Get 'em tangled up with mine.
Let her know for sure,
That I'm more than just a soft place to land.
This would be a real good time, to hold my hand.If I'm your future and she's your past,
If it's over with her, and our love's gonna last-
