Only You

Ellie Goulding

Only you can be the aching in my heart
My enemy, the only animal I couldn't fight
You hold me in the dark when storms arrive, only youOnly you can see the emptiness I feel
When you're with me
When everything you say I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my kneesWhen everything you say I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my kneesOnly you can be the aching in my heart
My enemy, the only animal I couldn't fight
You hold me in the dark when storms arrive
Only you
Only you
Only you
Only you can see the emptiness I feel
When you're with me
When everything you say I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my kneesWhen everything you say I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees
Baby I'm on my knees, only youOnly you can be the aching in my heart
My enemy, the only animal I couldn't fight
You hold me in the dark when storms arrive, only youOnly youOnly you can be the aching in my heart
My enemy, the only animal I couldn't fight
You hold me in the dark when storms arrive, only you
