

It's Me

Out of Eden

Here I stand at the door of your heart just knockin'
Won't you let me in, I can take away the sin that lies within
I know what you're wanting to say
But can only think, can only pray that someone hears
You hide all your secrets in that private place
If you only knew that your mind is open to my eye
I know the truth, I know what you need to fill the void in you
If you only knew that it is me
It's me, that you are searchin' for
It's me, that you are thinkin' of
It's me, that can't live without
It's me, it's me
Here I am, but still you try everything
To give you only what I can
Always hoping that someone'll understand, oh please
It all awaits you if you just taste and see
I am what you need
It's me, that you are searchin' for
It's me, that you are thinkin' of
It's me, that can't live without
It's me, it's me
What did I do to make you turn so very far away?
What's to lose when you have it all to gain?
I know you, and what you are and what you want to be
If you only knew it's all in me
It's me, that you are searchin' for
It's me, that you are thinkin' of
It's me, that can't live without
It's me, it's me
It is me, that you're searchin' for
Nobody else can no one can give you more
It is me, that you're thinkin' of
I can show you love, real love
