Bloodsucker

Kevin Morby

I am trying to make peace with where I am,
Blood on the wall with a knife stuck to my hand,
I am trying to make peace inside today,
I am trying but its not working,I am trying to make peace inside a war,
Its been so long I don't no what we're fighting for,
I am trying to make peace but not at all,
Sent to mud from the blood,
Sent to mud from the blood,I am trying to make peace with where you are,
So very near my dear but all so very far,
A million miles while your one step to my left,
All is gone, all is left,
All is gone, nothing left,And its a bloodsucker,
And its a bloodsucker oh,
And its a bloodsucker,There is a piece hidden deep inside my mind,
It's hard to reach but I see it from time to time,
There is my mother, I am cradled in her arms,
I am free, I am safe from all that harms,
I am free from where you are,I am trying to make peace inside today,
Blood on the floor with a knife tied to my name,
I am trying to make peace with who i am,
An honest man, an honest man,
An honest man, an honest man,And it's a bloodsucker
And it's a bloodsucker oh
And it's a bloodsucker
Bloodsucker
Bloodsucker
Bloodsucker
