

Enemy of the Enemy

Asian Dub Foundation

Open up, open up, open up
Open up
Enemy, enemy, enemy
Enemy, enemy Bring this Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what?
Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what? Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what?
Enemy of the enemy
Me, me Babylon is really burning this time
My chick is coming home to roost on a Soviet airline
Climbing on the subway, burning eyes spinning head
Walking through the station, breaking into a cold sweat Is the ticking time bomb in my head or your bag
Have you been snorting white lines with president, gas
Crawling from the wreckage of my tumblin' tower block
Someone else had to finish the job It was the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again It was the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what?
Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what? Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what?
Enemy of the enemy
Me, me Rig a dig Starin' out the window at 50,000 feet
At the mercy of the skies, no escape velocity
And as your eyes meet my skin, see the terror on your face
Do you want it to stop, put yourself in their place Where what your life is worth depends on where you live
Too many generations down the line to forgive
If all you knew was total war from every side
You'd have to decide, you'd have to decide Who's the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again Who's the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend

Till he's the enemy again Choose the enemy, know the enemy
 Love the enemy, feed the enemy
 Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
 Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy Choose the enemy, know the enemy
 Love the enemy, feed the enemy
 Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
 Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy Keep your friends close
 But keep your enemies closer
 Closer, closer, closer Keep your friends close
 But keep your enemies closer
 Closer, closer, closer This is easy, uh, they got a turban
 We don't have to know
 What's going on in the turban
 Just proceed with the story Choose the enemy, know the enemy
 Love the enemy, feed the enemy
 Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
 Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy Choose the enemy, know the enemy
 Love the enemy, feed the enemy
 Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
 Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy Keep your friends close
 But keep your enemies closer
 Closer, closer, closer Keep your friends close
 But keep your enemies closer
 Closer, closer, closer It was the enemy of the enemy
 The enemy of the enemy
 He's a friend
 Till he's the enemy again It was the enemy of the enemy
 The enemy of the enemy
 He's a friend
 Till he's the enemy again Choose the enemy, know the enemy
 Love the enemy, feed the enemy
 Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
 Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy Choose the enemy, know the enemy
 Love the enemy, feed the enemy
 Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
 Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
