

I Can't Read Your Mind

Mario Biondi

In a silent way from a inner space
You are on my mind my love I'm in ecstasy when you're kissing me and you are everywhere in all my dreams Don't know where you really are you know the way I feel for you
I hope you feel the same way too
Even though we've come so far it's heaven when I'm close to you I'm living for the love of you
When you are not around I will close my eyes And I know what I'll find my love babe your reflection dear is all I see when you're not here for you are everything your dream could ever bring Don't know where you really are
you know the way I feel for you
I hope you feel the same way too
Even though we've come so far
it's heaven when I'm close to you
I'm living for the love of you
Ohh, I can't read your mind Ohhh, I can't read your mind Don't know yet just where you are But every time I think of you Something changes I can't undo
Oh
Even though we've come so far I'm hoping it's the same for you and you are going through these changes to Baby I can't read your mind to know just where you are But I'll stay with you, I will live with you and I'll care for you for as long as you want to
And I can't read your mind To know who you are And I'll think of you

oooh
