Coldblooded

Devildriver

Choking on the ladders you're hoping to climb
Swimming through the oceans divine
You keep wishing on stars that won't take you far
Wish me, wish me far awayBeyond the voices is where the snakes lie
The world is venomous
Beyond the fences is where they go to die
The world is venomous, it's fucking relentlessScrutinized, no one denies
You play the victim, coldblooded, coldblooded
They watch your lies, no one denies
You play the victim, coldblooded, coldbloodedThere's fire in the goddamn sky
Dead but still dreaming
Lean on the dream that won't take you far
Wish me, wish me far awayBeyond the voices is where the snakes lie
The world is venomous
Beyond the fences is where they go to die
The world is venomous, it's fucking relentlessScrutinized, no one denies
You play the victim, coldblooded, coldblooded
They watch your lies, no one denies
You play the victim, coldblooded, coldbloodedYou're scrutinized, no one denies
You play the victim, coldblooded, coldblooded
They watch your lies, no one denies
You play the victim, coldblooded, coldbloodedDeeds of the flesh, all put to rest
Stay steady, coldblooded, coldblooded
They watch your lies, no one denies
You play the victim, coldblooded, coldblooded
