

Pour

Lori McKenna

In the depths of the deep blue sea
There's a blue as blue as me
Where a quiet symphony
Plays for the lonelyI could just let it all go
Sink down to the world below
Where I don't breathe but I don't know
'Cause I'm breathlessWhen it's love
It will rain sometimes
When it's love, it will pour
PourI don't know where my lover went
But I know that he took the rent
And I know that he went
And spent all my lovingAnd I'm not rich but I don't care
I'll find that boy anywhere
I'll walk the land, fly the air
And tread waterWhen it's love
It will rain sometimes
When it's love, it will pour
PourIf the moon could sing a song
With the symphony in the blue beyond
They'd tell me
He was really gone foreverWhen it's love
It will rain sometimes
When it's love, it will pourWhen it's love
It will rain sometimes
When it's love, it will pour
Pour, pour, pourIt will pour
It will pour
It will pour
